Foreword

Light reveals itself in many different ways and it is more influential to mankind than any other aspect of life. Ancient men existed through their only symbols of light: the guiding light of the sun and the mysterious glow of the moon. Today, the influence of light upon our lives can be interpreted in many diverse and exciting ways. We depend upon the sun's munificent giving of warmth and light for our existence without which there would be no life. All the forms of artificial light cannot go without being mentioned. Their light and warmth affect our lives constantly in allowing us a more controllable existence. The light of knowledge is the light by which our minds grow. In the minds of all men, this light is constantly searching for enrichment. It is the search light into the darkness of the unknown. The brightness of a smile conveys still another light; the warmth of friendship, which is most important of all. Light has influenced our high school lives as it will go on to influence the decisions we will make in later life. Since the beginning mankind's theme has been light. Without it life would cease.

Let there be light.

Linda

Dedication

Senor, coach and friend are a few of the titles associated with the person to whom we dedicate this 1968 Merrimac. With devotion, he has cast his enlightenment on the lives of students, faculty members, and administrators. This man realizes the value of a well rounded person and through his shining example, many people have come to pursue similar goals. For his qualities as an individual and as a leader, we dedicate the 1968 Merrimac to him.

Sophisticates

Today is the 21st and in 21 more days it will have been a whole year since we first met. We didn't see each other for some time till we met again at a dance.

Intelligentsia

I sure did have a swell time. It wasn't long before we started dating and believe me, up to this time there hasn't been a time that I have ever had so much fun with one person in my whole life. I would never regret having met you. You are a girl with great qualities in a great quantity.

Neophytes

Solidarities

You have 2 years of high school and if you should go to B.C. 2 more, so that should make 4 years right? Anyhow, I ~~wish~~ wish you the best of luck throughout those years and the ones to come.

Olympians

I know you will make it because you are a girl with a determination that will never quit.

Socialites

As for me I have 2 years and 7 months of Uncle Sam's business to mangle with. I'm not sure but if I like the service I

Dr. Grant Jensen, Principal

Administrators

Aids To Advancement

Time and energy are the factors that are needed to promote the welfare of the Kern County Union High School district. Without the efforts of Mr. Theron McCuen, Mr. John Eckhardt, Mr. Theron Taber, and the Board of Trustees, and most important to South High, Dr. Grant Jensen, a smooth functioning educational system would not exist. Through experimentation controlled by Dr. Jensen, South High has become the most progressive and innovative school in Bakersfield. The student body at South High would like to extend warm thanks for the dedication this man has displayed. Thank you Dr. Jensen.

A Variety

The Basic Projects Department, founded to help the educationally disadvantaged student, focuses its attention on the basic skills of communication and emphasizes personal, domestic, and occupational needs.

The Agriculture Department gives students a taste of the how's and why's of farm life and prepares them for future agricultural occupations.

Workers Behind The Scenes . . .

South High, a campus to be proud of, does not stay that way by itself. It takes servicing by thoughtful custodians. Not to be forgotten are Mrs. Dixie Micheli and Mr. Bill Sandstrom who care for gym equipment. Along with appetizing meals, the Cafeteria Staff is always there to serve you with a smile. Nutrition may be attained not only from the cafeteria line, but also from the outside snack bar.

REBELETTES PERFORMING ON STAGE

Band and Rebelettes

Marching To Success

Through many hours of hectic practice the Rebelettes, supervised by Helen Felton and Joan Church, and the Rebel Band directed by John Briscoe, have created many unique half-time presentations and have captured the interest of spectators. Placing first in half-time parade competition at Selma and receiving a trophy in the Veterans' Day Parade, the Rebelettes have set another excellent example of originality and spirit which is so much a part of South High. The band produces diverse forms of entertainment ranging from sometimes comical half-time presentations at football games to serious contemporary compositions. For its accomplishments the band has the honor of holding a first place award won in half-time show competition at Selma.

Spirit And Morale

Decorating the stadium in the traditional blue and gray is one of the many duties of a member of rally club. To promote spirit, the club's planning committee devises new and unusual ideas for rallies, such as this year's exchange rally with East High and the psychedelic hippie football game. In the spring, club members are rewarded for their efforts with a picnic.

Future Farmers of America and Farmerettes of America

Knowledge Reaches Goals

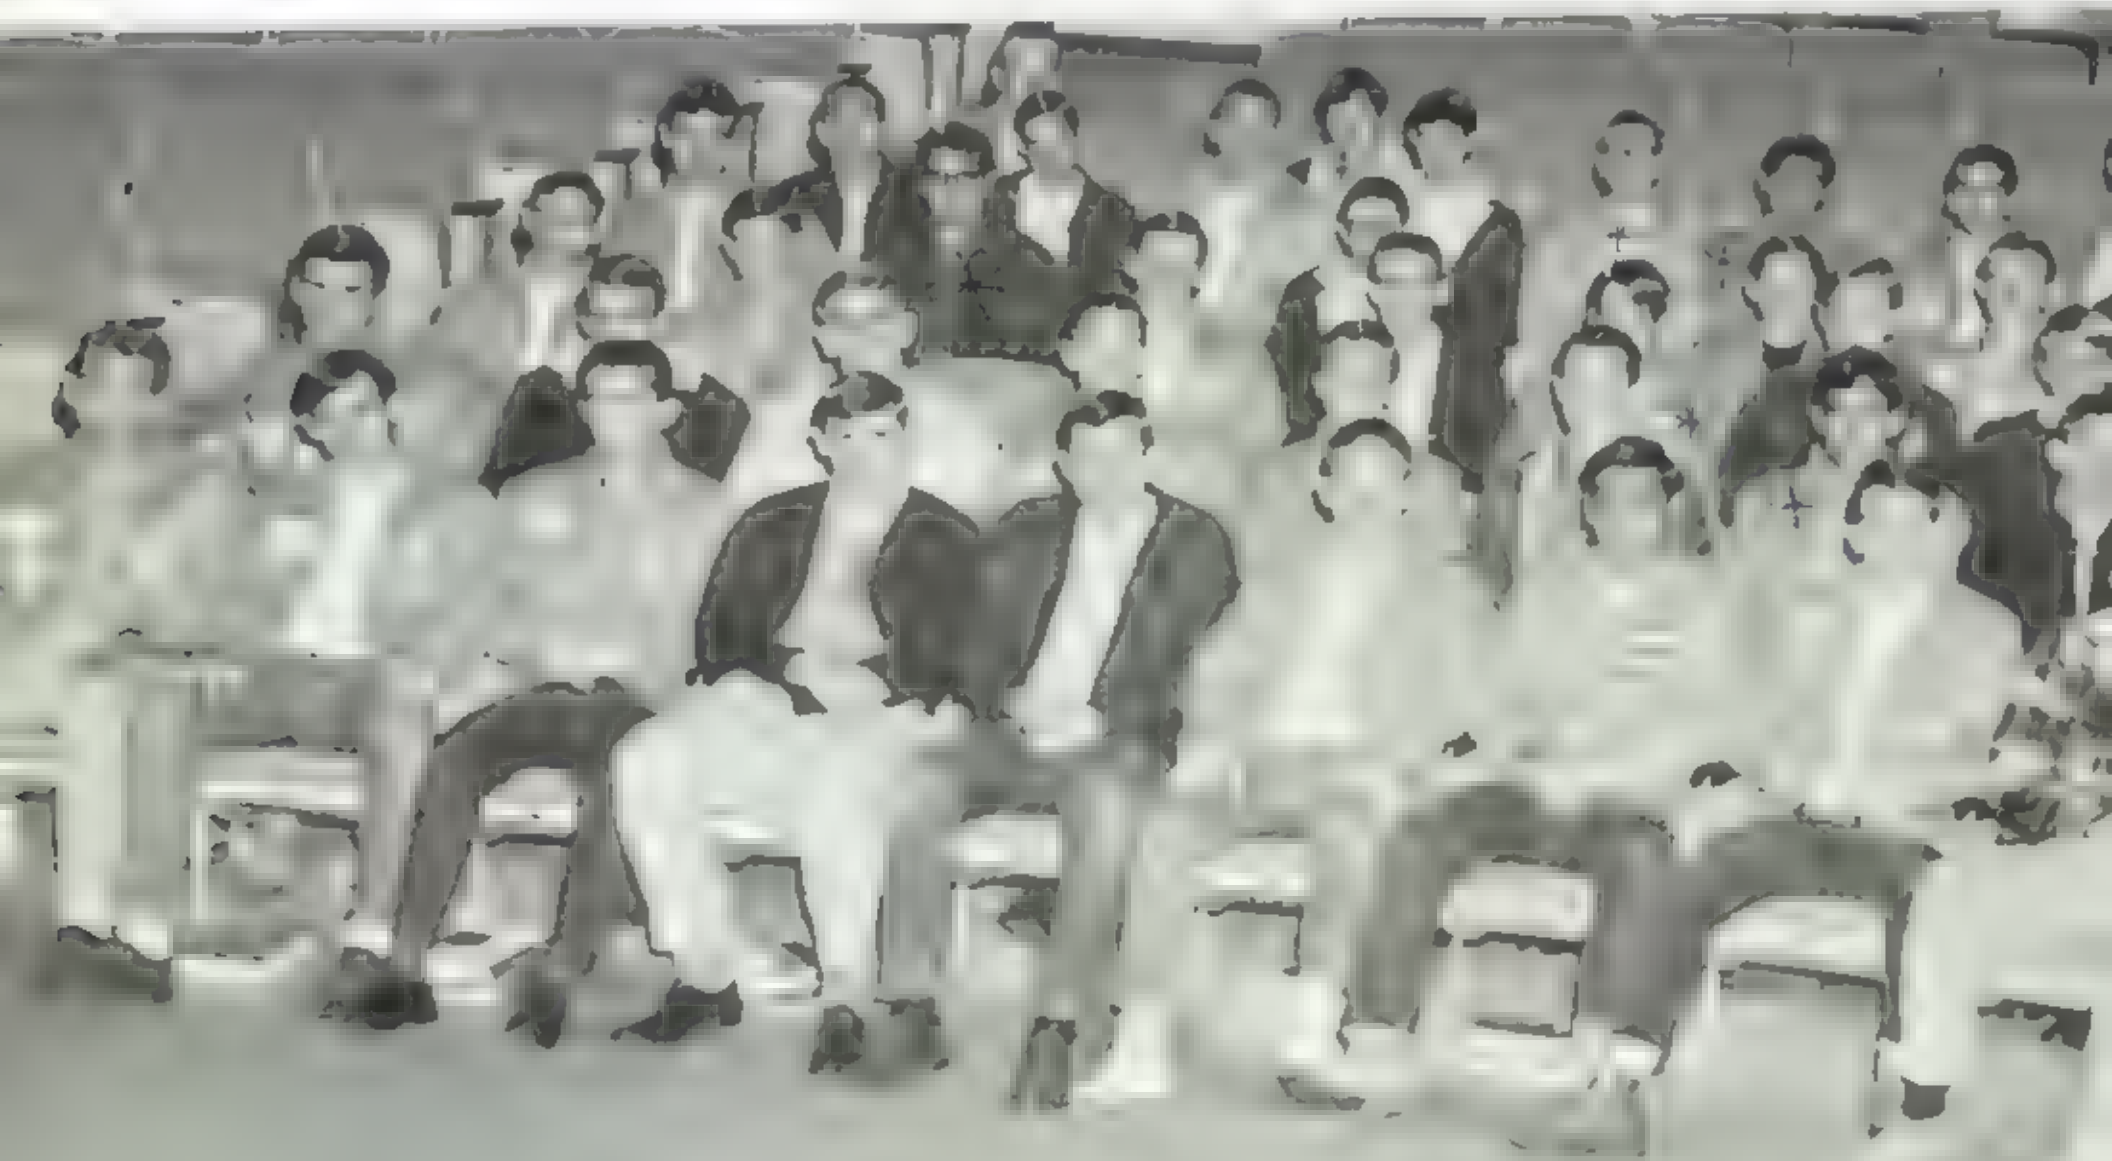

Providing leadership among students with common interests and knowledge concerning agriculture is the prime factor of the South High Future Farmers and Farmerettes. Not only do they bring high honors in agricultural endeavors such as judging contests at State and County fairs, but they have taken an active part in school functions. Initiating the Greased Pig Contest was a huge success as was having a first place booth at the Club Fair. The Farmers were also very proud to sponsor the first Homecoming Queen, Miss Pam Hunt.

Snow filled caps of pleasure . . .

A new organization on campus, Ski Club wants to liven the students who have an interest in winter skiing and at the same time offer assistance in skiing skills. They started their year with snow trips to Mammoth China Peak, Badger Pass and Shirley Meadows. The club also achieved success in producing a Fall Fashion Show at which they showed ski films and modeled ski fashions.

Molding Models . . .

Through many hours of hard work, the Industrial Arts Club has given the South High Student Body a symbol to be proud of. The challenge of high school life met in as many ways as there are students. The experiences of a student through this segment of the most rapid and the years of his life continue to make this period one of intense character molding and growth. The way in which he reacts and copes with the adventure of growing up affects his character development. Through an optimistic and well-balanced approach to the situation that comes with this growth, the student is a person with a quality of character that will emerge. Reaching a point of contact with his own self in the end of his journey of life, the student of an enlightened character will find the way will light his way. He hopes that the character of a student will be the power of light to find his own path. The power of light to find his own path.

We Express Appreciation To:

Mr. Carl Allenthorp

whose photographic assistance enables us to express pictorial events on campus.

Mr. Robert Gabbias

whose enlightenment inspired us in choosing the foundation for our yearbook.

Mr. Ron Fontaine

whose support gave us the extra needed touch to success.

Mr. Clete Harper

whose staff of photographers aided us in capturing many picturesque scenes.

Mrs. Connie Bell

whose financial knowledge helped to regulate our staff funds.

WE GRATEFULLY EXTEND GENUINE
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT TO THESE INDIVIDUALS
